

Mrs. Robinsons Disgrace: The Private Diary of a Victorian Lady

I think people marry far too much; it is such a lottery, and for a poor woman--bodily and morally the husbands slave--a very doubtful happiness. -Queen Victoria to her recently married daughter VickyHeadstrong, high-spirited, and already widowed, Isabella Walker became Mrs. Henry Robinson at age 31 in 1844. Her first husband had died suddenly, leaving his estate to a son from a previous marriage, so she inherited nothing. A successful civil engineer, Henry moved them, by then with two sons, to Edinburghs elegant society in 1850. But Henry traveled often and was cold and remote when home, leaving Isabella to her fantasies.No doubt thousands of Victorian women faced the same circumstances, but Isabella chose to record her innermost thoughts-and especially her infatuation with a married Dr. Edward Lane-in her diary. Over five years the entries mounted-passionate, sensual, suggestive. One fateful day in 1858 Henry chanced on the diary and, broaching its privacy, read Isabellas intimate entries. Aghast at his wives perceived infidelity, Henry petitioned for divorce on the grounds of adultery. Until that year, divorce had been illegal in England, the marital bond being a cornerstone of English life. Their trial would be a cause celebre, threatening the foundations of Victorian society with the specter of a new and disturbing figure: a middle class wife who was restless, unhappy, avid for arousal. Her diary, read in court, was as explosive as Flauberts Madame Bovary, just published in France but considered too scandalous to be translated into English until the 1880s.As she accomplished in her award-winning and bestselling The Suspicions of Mr. Whicher, Kate Summerscale brilliantly recreates the Victorian world, chronicling in exquisite and compelling detail the life of Isabella Robinson, wherein the longings of a frustrated wife collided with a society clinging to rigid ideas about sanity, the boundaries of privacy, the institution of marriage, and female sexuality.

Et les renforts arrivent encore Bon ça sera la dernière revue de troupes de la semaine. Donc on arrive à 300 figurines il en reste donc 420... mais ça va ça avance bien. Je m'amuserais surtout sur les petites pièces. Là c'est du monobloc donc même si la ligne de moulage est visible -donc il faut barber presque tout le tour de la figurine... oui oui.- Comme chaque début de défi, je suis dans les temps, limite mieux qu'espérer. Mais par expérience je sais que c'est le creux du défi qui m'est fatal donc on verra quand j'aurais tout barbé :) Publié par CdtK à 17:37 4 commentaires: Liens vers cet article Envoyer par e-mail BlogThis! Oui certains diront que ça fait parti du hobby mais c'est vraiment ce que je teste le plus. Et puis là c'est de l'industriel. Mais voilà pour les 6cm c'est fini et je verrais pour les 8cm de front plus tard -je dirais fin août-. Mais à quoi ça correspond? Donc dire des trous c'est bien mais ça renseigne pas beaucoup alors 1200 trous c'est : 594 soldats -de l'âge à lourd- 231 cavaliers et 24 canons avec 4 artilleurs. Oui monsieur. Bon alors je suis désolé de ne pas avoir plus de soldats à pied. C'est pas super grave, je doute que toutes les plaquettes soient un jour sur la même table. Mais bon quand on voit que pour 30€ -3 plaquettes- j'ai pu faire celle là et autant en 8cm, ça va. Il faut voir ce que cela m'aurait coûté dans le commerce. On y rajoute le prix des aimants -15€ les 1000 fdpin- et j'ai quand même un très bon rapport qualité-prix par rapport à ce que je recherchais. Il le reste à barber les trous pour y glisser l'aimant et ça sera parfait je pourrais retourner à mes figurines.
