

The New Testament Code: Gospels, Apostles and the Dead Sea Scrolls

The discovery of a trove of ancient scrolls in a series of caves on the northwestern shore of the Dead Sea galvanized the field of biblical studies. What has come to be known as the Dead Sea Scrolls constituted a library of religious texts in the possession of a radical Jewish sect that flourished around the time of Christ. They offer a unique window into the ideology and religious sentiments of a period that witnessed both the birth of Rabbinic Judaism and the new religious movement that was to become Christianity. Early on the Jordan Department of Antiquities established a committee to oversee the publication of the scrolls. For the next thirty-five years this committee exercised strict control over the find, making, in effect, the scrolls their exclusive property. Robert Eisenman spearheaded the efforts to break the stranglehold of the committee and make the scrolls widely available. His efforts and those of like-minded scholars finally resulted in 1988 in the publication of the entire corpus of the scrolls. In The New Testament Code Professor Eisenman marshals his encyclopedic knowledge of scriptures, the scrolls and the entire body of early Christian, Jewish and Islamic writings to present a profound and provocative reading of the New Testament. He argues that the scrolls offer the key to understanding its true meaning. At issue are the relationship between James, the brother of Jesus and the apostle Paul, their strenuous debates over the observance of Mosaic Law, the messianic and apocalyptic movements that presaged the destruction of the Second Temple, the hidden meaning of the Cup of the Lord and the Blood of Christ, and the beginnings of the Christian Church. With intrepid scholarship Eisenman reveals the sinews beneath the surface meaning of texts to present a comprehensive and convincing argument that turns much conventional thinking on its head. Here is an analysis that Jews,

Christians, and anyone interested in the founding documents of Western culture will find immeasurably rewarding.

Et les renforts arrivent encore Bon Åa sera la derniÅre revue de troupes de la semaine. Donc on arrive Å 300 figurines il en reste donc 420... mais Åa va Åa avance bien. Je m'amuserais surtout sur les petites piÅces. LÅ c'est du monobloc donc mÅme si la ligne de moulage est visible -donc il faut Åbarber presque tout le tour de la figurine... oui oui.- Comme Å chaque dÅbut de dÅfi, je suis dans les temps, limite mieux qu'espÅrer. Mais par expÅrience je sais que c'est le creux du dÅfi qui m'est fatal donc on verra quand j'aurais tout ÅbarbÅ :) PubliÅ par CdtK Å 17:37 4 commentaires: Liens vers cet article Envoyer par e-mail BlogThis! Oui certains diront que Åa fait parti du hobby mais c'est vraiment ce que je dÅteste le plus. Et puis lÅ c'est de l'industriel. Mais voilÅ pour les 6cm c'est fini et je verrais pour les 8cm de front plus tard -je dirais fin aoÅt-. Mais Å quoi Åa correspond? Donc dire des trous c'est bien mais Åa renseigne pas beaucoup alors 1200 trous c'est : 594 soldats -de lÅger Å lourd- 231 cavaliers et 24 canons avec 4 artilleurs. Oui monsieur. Bon alors je suis dÅÅu de ne pas avoir plus de soldats Å pied. C'est pas super grave, je doute que toutes les plaquettes soient un jour sur la mÅme table. Mais bon quand on voit que pour 30e -3 plaquettes- j'ai pu fait celle lÅ et autant en 8cm, Åa va. Il faut voir ce que cela m'aurait coutÅ dans le commerce. On y rajoute le prix des aimants -15e les 1000 fdpin- et j'ai quand mÅme un trÅs bon rapport qualitÅ-prix par rapport Å ce que je recherchais. Il le reste Å Åbarber les trous pour y glisser l'aimant et Åa sera parfait je pourrais retourner Å mes figurines.
